Following receipt of any complaints submitted hereunder, the Chair shall promptly investigate each matter so reported. The Chair may enlist employees of the Company and/o outside legal, accounting or other advisors, as appropriate, to conduct any investigation of complaints regarding financial statement disclosures, accounting, internal accounting controls, auditing matters or other violations of the Company’s Code of Business Conduct and Ethics. In conducting any investigation, the Chair shall use reasonable efforts to protect the confidentiality and anonymity of the complainant. If appropriate, the Chair may take corrective and disciplinary actions, which include, alone or in combination, a warning or letter of reprimand, demotion, loss of merit increase, bonus or stock options, suspension without pay or termination of employment or engagement. It is the obligation of all employees, officers and directors to cooperate with such investigations. The Chair shall retain as a part of the records of the Audit Committee any such complaints or concerns for a period of no less than seven years.

2. NO RETALIATION

A Submission under this Policy may be made by a director, officer, employee or consultant of the Company without fear of dismissal, disciplinary action or retaliation of any kind. The Company will not discharge, discipline, demote, suspend, threaten or in any manner discriminate against any person who reports in good faith a whistleblower issue or provides assistance to the Chair, management or any other person or group, including governmental, regulatory or law enforcement body, investigating a whistleblower issue.

3. ACTING IN GOOD FAITH

In the event that the investigation reveals that the complaint was frivolously made or undertaken for improper motives or made in bad faith or without a reasonable and probable basis, that complainant's supervisor may take such disciplinary action as it is appropriate in the circumstances.

4. CERTIFICATION

I certify that I have no knowledge that I or anyone acting on my behalf or at my discretion has engaged or is engaging in such activities. I also certify that I am using my best efforts to effectively implement the Policy in a prompt and timely manner. I understand that IU will be subject to disciplinary actions, including potential termination of my relationship and /or employment with the Company as a result of breaching any provision of the Policy.
